

I feel that a "practice area" is not needed. There are many ways that a person can practice and learn the code without actually conversing over the air. This petition does nothing constructive.